

Dear Sir/Madam,

This letter is in reference to the performance of Amy Gallagher on the TEFL classroom course provided by TEFL Org.

What has Amy learnt?

Amy has demonstrated interest in the course work and first-rate application to the tasks. I believe Amy will be an excellent teacher with little support necessary. Amy's lesson planning is first-rate, achieving a good understanding of issues in TEFL.

In particular, Amy has:

- demonstrated a keen interest in the topics covered on the course.
- developed a confident teaching style.
- shown the ability to establish rapport in the class.
- responded well to suggestions.

Amy was an outstanding course participant, one who worked hard to take on board the course content and to implement its relevant parts when planning and executing her teaching practice lesson segments. In these she came across as confident and assured and, indeed, someone who had a natural flair leading a class. While, of course, there is still much for her to learn, it is clear that she will be delivering lessons that are very effective and engaging from the outset.
