To whom it may concern,

My name is Milisutando, a 25 year old Native English speaker from East London, South Africa. After hearing about teaching English in Asia, I knew this would be a great opportunity to showcase my gift and passion in teaching.

I am a young, vibrant individual that is always eager to learn about new things. I am very determined and take pride in everything I do. I love children and believe I am a child at heart, although very assertive and responsible, and that is why children are immediately drawn to me and are comfortable around me. I am very hardworking and enjoy challenging myself. I am well aware that by teaching people English, I'd be making a difference by helping the next person to better their future.

Upon getting the opportunity to come teach in Asia, I would grab this opportunity with both hands and do it with the best of my ability. I am well aware that it would be a complete new lifestyle but I am quite excited to challenge myself and make a difference while earning a living.

Kind regards
M. Maqoga
