Foundation Phase Teacher

About Me

I am a 22- year old qualified teacher with a degree in the Bachelor of Education in Foundation phase teaching through the Independent Institute of Education (IIE), Varsity College. I have also completed a 120 hours TEFL course with a 20 hours TEFL practical course. Furthermore, I am a registered teacher at the South African Council of Educators (SACE) and I have a valid Police Clearance Certificate. I am a Christian and my hobbies include reading, baking and listening to music. In addition, I have a passion for inclusive education and for teaching little people. I would like to collobarate with other teaching professionals and use my skills to improve myself and further contribute to the field of education.
